Allegiant Air will offer two flights weekly between Williams Gateway Airport in Mesa and Chicago/Rockford International Airport in Illinois, the airline announced Thursday.

Flights will start on Nov. 16 and will be offered on Mondays and Fridays. The departure time from Williams Gateway is 12:45 p.m., and flights will arrive at Williams Gateway at 8:15 p.m.

Introductory fares will start at $79 each way. Seats must be purchased by Sept. 15, and travel must be completed by Feb. 10. After the introductory period, fares will start at $99 each way.

Rockford's airport is 85 miles northwest of Chicago, according to its Web site.

Allegiant will partner with more than 20 hotels in the Valley and around the state for travel packages. An air/hotel package will be available for $305 per person per night, and will include three nights at the Days Inn Scottsdale Fashion Square Resort, the company said in a statement.

To make reservations, call (702)-505-8888, or visit www. Allegiantair.com.
